DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's response and amendment filed September 28, 2009, has overcome the objections and rejections of fig. 1 for needing a prior art label, claims 1, 12 and 15 for being unclear, claims 5 and 19 for not being enabling and rejections as being unpatentable over Galkin. The objections and rejections of these claims and fig. 1 have been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made in view of Entrekin (US 2004/010193 A1).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claim 17 recites the limitation "said tensioning apparatus" in the first to second line of the claim. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. It is unclear if the applicant means that the plurality of tensioning apparatuses of claim 15 each comprises at least two tensioning devices, or that the plurality of tensioning apparatuses comprises at least two tensioning devices. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 3768

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. Claims 15-17, 21 and 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Entrekin (US 2004/0010193 A1). Entrekin discloses an apparatus for compressing tissue between two compression plates during a mammography procedure to generate an ultrasonic image (fig. 1) wherein the entire system shown in fig. 1 can be constructed in an inverted configuration (paragraph 0009-0010). One of the compression plates comprises a tissue compression membrane 40 (fig. 2) such as a polymeric sheet with a thickness of 73 microns (paragraph 0014) that compresses the tissue between the membrane and the other compression plate 12 (support, fig. 1) and minimizes image distortion (paragraph 0004). The membrane is placed in a taut condition through a plurality of tensioning apparatuses of a series of bars (plates) and screws (paragraph 0016-0018).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

8. Claim 19 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Entrekin.

Entrekin discloses that the tensioning device comprises a movable tension bar (plate) wherein the bars create tensile force by mechanical means of tightening screws which push the side tension bars outwards (paragraph 0017) however does not disclose that this is responsive to a mechanical command. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention was made to change the tightening of the screws as being responsive to a mechanical command instead of being done manually since it has been held that providing an automatic means to replace manual activity which has accomplished the same result involves only routine skill in the art (In re Venner, 120 USPQ 192).

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claims 1-4, 6-14, and 18 are allowed.

Conclusion

10. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

11. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO

Art Unit: 3768

MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
